

That's the style as boutiques showcase wares

THERE was certainly no shortage of stylish events this week, one of the highlights of which was the Dublin Fashion Week, which kicked off with a special fashion show at Harry's Bar on Thursday night.

Former Apprentice star Geraldine O'Callaghan has been drafted in to MC the event where a host of top fashion boutiques showcased their wares. Among the familiar faces present were RTE presenter Kathryn Thomas and socialite Teresa Rocca. Also there were Emma Waldron and Izabella Chudzicka.
