

Firm wins contract to help clean Dublin's streets

A NEW street-cleaning contract has been awarded to ARAMARK Ireland, who will provide cleaning services across Dublin's 2.5km Business Improvement District (BID).

Under the agreement, ARAMARK will provide additional cleaning services to those already carried out by Dublin City Council.

These include a rapid response hotline facility for businesses in the BID area to report urgent cleaning needs.

Cable

The removal of stickers and cable ties around the city will also be included.

Dublin City BID will continue to monitor the cleanliness of the streets through its Litter Pollution Index (LPI).

Richard Guiney, CEO of Dublin City BID, said: "The service is certain to improve the cleanliness of our city and in doing so will benefit the 2,000 businesses in our area."

Speaking on behalf of

ARAMARK Workplace Solutions, General Manager Derry Robertson added: "Our crews will be working seven days to ensure Dublin city centre receives a rapid response to cleaning emergencies."
