Christmas kitsch is having a moment. Dublin City's Business Improvement District (BID) wants to set a Christmas jumper world record in aid of the children's charity Barretstown. Next Sunday, December 2nd at 2pm, they are asking you to tog out your entire family Val Doonican-style for Geansaí Nollaig Day and to join in the carol singing and street theatre on South King Street in Dublin 2. For more information see Dublinatchristmas.ie.
