

THE OBSESSED LIST

The Top 5 Things We Love This Week

1 Trick or TREAT

Luxury Irish chocolatiers Coco Atelier (Drury Street and House of Fraser, Dundrum Town Centre) aren't ones to rest on their laurels. They are constantly launching inventive new lines of delicious chocolate treats made from the finest of ingredients. Their Halloween range includes milk chocolate witches hats with praline truffles (€10.95) and pumpkin lollipops in orange and milk (€2.50). Treat yourself. 2 Bag a bargain

Fancy a designer handbag at a bargain price? Then visit Heavenly Handbags in Lost Society on South William Street this evening. Bags previously loved by Irish celebrities such as Rosanna Davison, Claire Byrne and Lisa Cannon will be going under the hammer in aid of the Irish Hospice Foundation. Guests will also enjoy 'Heavenly cocktails', a Boots beauty zone offering complimentary makeovers and goodie bags from No7, Lancôme and Origins. Tickets €20. Call 778 0000 for more info.

3 MONSTER MASH

Miller beer is taking over some of South William Street's best bars and clubs for their Creatures of the Night Halloween party on October 30th. They've partnered with Dakota, Lost Society, Pygmalion and the South William and they'll be transforming the four venues into dens of horror. Expect Pendulum DJ sets, Killa Kela gigs, voodoo bongo drummers, snake charmers and warped clowns. Tickets cost €6 for entry to any of the Creatures of the Night bars. See facebook.com/itsmillertime for more details.

4 CAPITAL GAINS

Dine in Dublin is serving up deals aplenty in restaurants across the capital until Sunday. Over 50 of the city's restaurants will be offering a selection of set three-course menus, priced at €15, €20, €25 or €30 (with tea and coffee). Enjoy a meal for €20 in Salamanca and Carluccio's; €25 in Gotham Café, Saba and L'Gueleton and €30 in restaurants such as Fallon & Byrne and Il Segreto. Log on to dineindublin.ie to find participating restaurants and to book online.

5 SECRET SALE

We're very excited about the Big Bank Holiday sample sale kicking off today at Avoca, Wicklow. Expect amazing bargains on the ladies, mens and kids ranges that are available from the Suffolk Street store. Avoca can often be prohibitively expensive so this is the perfect opportunity to acquire some of their coveted pieces without suffering from heart palpitations at the till. Now, let's keep this between ourselves, lest all the good stuff be snapped up too soon. The Big Bank Holiday Sale runs until Monday. See avoca.ie for more.
