

› We geansaí you now

DUBLINERS are being summoned to wish a happy kitsch-mas to the children at Barretstown. Dublin City Business Improvement District needs the public to take part in 'Geansaí Nollaig Day' to try to set the Christmas jumper world record and raise money for the charity. On Sunday December 4 at 2pm on Dublin's South King Street, every owner of a naff Christmas jumper will be summoned for the attempt, with Christmas carols a distinct possibility. And if you don't currently own one, don't worry: Lovely Christmas Jumpers in the George's Street Arcade (christmasjumpers.org) are giving away lovely Christmas jumpers to three lucky Metro Herald readers. For your chance to win, just answer the question below and text COMP followed by your answer and name to 53133 (texts cost €0.60 + standard network charge).

Q. Where does Santa live? A. The North Pole B. The South Circular Road

Terms & Conditions Competition closes at midnight Monday November 21. Winners will be chosen at random from the entries received and notified by telephone. Entrants must be over 18 years old. Usual Metro Herald rules apply. The Editor's decision is final. SP Oxygen8, 4th Floor, Matt House North, Grand Canal Quay, D2. Customer Service number 0818286606.