

White Door Scoops Major Award

THE White Door won Best Dublin Fashion Retailer of the Year at the Dublin Living Awards last night in the Mansion House.

Having only opened the store on Exchequer Street four months ago it is a great achievement - This Award is a true testament to a great idea, hard work, perseverance and a super team and an inspirational leader!

The White Door in Dunleer and Dublin is a designer boutique concept store that serves as a one-stop-shop for exclusive fashion, both Irish and International brands and houses a myriad of premium clothing brands, giftware, accessories, homeware, children's toys, and the fabulous Zorina cosmetics... the makeup for everyone.

Presented as a whole new concept, The White Door takes its inspiration from unique lifestyle boutiques from New York, Paris, Italy and beyond.

Proprietor Jacqueline Honer-Sullivan stated: "I am overwhelmed with the support we have gotten in the run up to the Dublin Living Awards. We live in the best city in the world and it is time to showcase the best that the city has to offer... The White Door promise to live up to this Award!"
